Contractors are much interested in two ordinances now pending before the City Council, one of which requires all builders stacking material of any character in the street to place on same a sign giving the name and ad-dress of the contractor, so that in the event of any trouble or felling to dress of the contractor, so that in the event of any trouble or failure to place lights the proper party may be promptly located. The other requires the sprinkling of all old material taken from houses being torn down to prevent the dust nuisance, so noticeable in many sections of the city where large building operations are going on.

LAY THE CORNER-STONE.

Monument to Attorney-General of Confederacy in Wilmington.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Wilmington. N. C., October 14.—
The occasion of the laying of the corner-stone of the monument to be erected to the memory of Hon. George Davis, Attorney-General of the Cabinet of President Jefferson Davis, furnished the feature of the day for the State convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, now in annual session here.

The laying of the corner-stone, with attendant impressive and beautiful ceremonies, took place this afternoon, and the occasion was made a sort of half-holiday in Wilmington. The monument is to be erected at the end of a plazza on Market Street, near its intersection with Third, and the scene there to-day was an inspiring one, hundreds of people, both old and young, gathering. Several military companies added attractiveness by it eir presence.

Preceding the coremony there was a big parade, participated in by various civic organizations, and led by the Wilmington Light Intantry and the Cape Fear Camp, United Confederate Voterans. The members of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce and bar of this county went to the scene in a body. The George Davis Camp, Sons of Veterans, was also present, and occupied a position of honor, as add all the visiting Daughters of the Confederacy, whose number runs well up towards the 200 mark. The Mayor and members of the Board of Aldermen also occupied prominent positions at the front,

The laving of the corner-stone was conducted by the Masons of this city, after which was presented a delightful program of music, consisting or selections by some of the best voices in the city and by several hundred school children, who sang with fine effect "Carolina".

The oration of the occasion was delivered by Colonel Alfred M. Waddell, ex-Congressman and ex-Mayor of Wilmington, who was a warm personal friend of Mr. Davis He paid a touching ton the content of the head of the content of the confideracy of the content of the content of the confiderac

Nearly all of Mr. Davis's children live in Wilmington, as do most of his grandchildren, and they were all pres-ent at the beautiful exercises.
